

ACTIVITY #03

In the given sentences identify phrases, and the types of clauses by highlighting them:

1. On the way to the computer store yesterday, we discovered a short cut to the farmer's market.

On the way to the computer store yesterday -> Phrase

We discovered a short cut to the farmer's market. -> I.C

2. At the computer store, Philip bought a computer, and I returned my printer.

At the computer store -> Phrase

Philip bought a computer -> I.C

I returned my printer -> I.C

3. The students could not turn in their assignments in time because they had no access to computers.

The students could not turn in their assignments in time -> I.C

Because they had no access to computers. -> S.C

4. I slipped on the patch of ice while I was running for the bus.

On the patch of ice -> Phrase

I slipped on the patch of ice -> I.C

While I was running for the bus -> S.C

5. As a student, he was no Einstein.

As a student -> Phrase

He was no Einstein -> I.C

6. He found the work boring and beneath his dignity.

Boring and beneath his dignity -> Phrase

He found the work boring and beneath his dignity -> I.C

7. Although Ricky took driver's education three times before passing, he considered himself a good driver.

A good driver -> Phrase

Ricky took driver's education three times before passing -> S.C

He considered himself a good driver -> I.C

8. As a child, he longed for open meadows.

As a child -> Phrase

Open meadows -> Phrase

He longed for open meadows -> I.C

9. Tad grew up in the city surrounded by tall buildings and taxis.

In the city surrounded by tall buildings and taxis -> Phrase

Tad grew up in the city surrounded by tall buildings and taxis -> I.C

10. It isn't necessary to cram all night if you have studied a little each day.

Cram all night -> Phrase

A little each day -> Phrase

It isn't necessary to cram all night -> S.C

If you have studied a little each day -> S.C